CLASS, WORKSHOP & LECTURE LINEUP

January 2009 @ Tohono Chul Park

WHAT: GARDENING WHERE WE LIVE

One aspect of the mission of Tohono Chul Park is to model living with the desert; one means of fulfilling that mission is to demonstrate sustainable gardening where we live. Gardening in Tucson is not quite like gardening anywhere else and this popular two-part class is for newcomers to Arizona and newcomers to gardening. Greg Corman and Lynn Hassler (Gardening Insights) share their Tucson gardening experiences, from designing landscapes to growing plants in what can be a difficult environment for the uninitiated.
